

In compliance with the legal requirements for processing personal data, we wish to ensure that you are aware of the purposes for which we hold your personal information that you have provided us and how it will be processed.

The relevant legislation with which we are required to comply are: 1) The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and 2) The Data Protection Act 2018.

As part of our work and activities we will share your details with the Polish Catholic Mission with whom we work closely and with other social or church organisations if relevant.

We will not share your personal data with any other third party than those you have consent to unless required to do so as a legal requirement.

Data Protection Officer for the Institute of Polish Catholic Action is Zenon Handzel and can be contacted by emailing ipakwb@pcmew.org.

- I have read and understood the above statements on Data Protection
- I consent to my personal data being held and shared by Institute of Polish Catholic Action
